

2016 Spring Classes To Prepare You For High-Tech Manufacturing Jobs

Tuition: $995 for MSSC-CPT
$2,495 for advanced training

Twelve Scholarships (valued at $6,000) are available for applicants who meet eligibility requirements!

For program information and to apply, please plan to attend an information session at a campus near you!

MSSC Certified Production Technician: 120 hours

- Safety, Quality, Maintenance, & Production Processes

Manufacturing Technician 1: online

Measurement, electricity, math, spatial reasoning, etc.

OSHA 30: 30 hours online

- Advanced safety training for industry employees

Mechatronics: 144 hours

- Basic mechanical components, industrial electricity, PLCs

CNC Operations: 240 hours

- Basic turning and milling

FANUC Robotics: 48 hours

- Educational certification

St. Petersburg College

SPC

This series of courses is designed to certify job seekers for jobs in the manufacturing field.

Nationally Recognized Certifications

Participants can earn the following:

- Certified Production Technician
- Manufacturing Technician 1
- OSHA 30
- NIMS, PMMI, FANUC
- Plus earn 15 credit hours towards an AS in Engineering Technology

MSSC-CPT:

Jan. 11 – Feb. 26 (MWR) 5:00p-9:00p

Feb. 1 – Mar. 25 (MWR) 8:00a-12:00p

Manufacturing Technician 1:

Ongoing, online with labs in Clearwater

Mechatronics:

Jan. 11 – Mar. 31 (MWR) TBD

FANUC Robotics:

Feb. 8 – Mar. 4 (TWR) TBD

WHO

Unemployed persons that would like to expand their knowledge while earning nationally recognized certificates and job placement assistance in the manufacturing industry.

www.spcollege.edu/FloridaTrade-SPC

Florida TRADE at St Petersburg College

13805 58th St. N

Clearwater, FL 33760

Dr. Jill Flansburg, Program Coordinator

Flansburg.Jill@spcollege.edu

727-791-2508

For registration information

This material was funded in whole by a $15M TAACCT grant awarded by the US Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration